

Ag. Science Trip

The 5th year ag science class visited Newgrange Farm to learn all about sheep farming. They also got opportunities to see all the other aspects of the farm including handling the bull calves, chickens, goats and even puppies.