

Drogheda young innovators

As part of the drogheda young innovators competition, ten transition year Business students got the opportunity to visit the Coca-Cola offices here in Southgate. The students took part in various enterprise activities throughout the day. They also got a chance to sample some of the beverages on offer from the Coca-Cola range.