

St. Oliver's Welcome Dancing with the Stars Duo

St. Oliver's were delighted to welcome 'Dancing with the Stars' duo, Jake Carter and his pro-dancing partner Karen Byrne to the school for a surprise visit.

The Liverpool singer, 19 captivated pupils and teachers alike as he took to the stage to play his latest single, 'Fallin' For You' as well as playing covers of some of the latest pop songs.

The pupils were delighted to be invited to ask questions however, Jake wasn't giving too much away as he said he 'wasn't sure' who would win the competition but added that he was thoroughly enjoying the experience.

Afterwards both Jake and Karen impressed pupils by standing for selfies and signing posters he had brought along for the occasion.

The final of Dancing with the Stars Ireland is due to take place on March 25th and Jake told how he was delighted to get a break from the rigorous training programme to perform in St. Oliver's.

Jake and Karen are clear favourites to win the show and Jake has managed to impress the judges each week with his fancy footwork and attention to detail.

Jake is playing in the TLT Concert Hall and theatre in Drogheda on April 7th and we've no doubt he gained a few more followers after his visit to St. Oliver's.
