

Leadership training in St Oliver's Community College

St. Oliver's student leaders were involved in ForÓige Leadership training for young people. This model of training built on the Albert Schweitzer principals of leaderships supports young people in the development of their leadership skills. Twenty students engaged in an intensive three day course developing skills which will support them in the delivery of varies project planned by them during this workshops.

Leadership training has become a significant aspect of development within the school, with over two hundred trained student leaders spear heading various academic and extra curricular projects within the school.
