

Music Generation

St Oliver's Community College was delighted to welcome Music Generation board members Leo Blennerhassett, Martin Drury, Dr. Cliona Doris, Deirdre McCrea, Rosaleen Molloy (NDO), Eve O'Kelly and Gemma Murray LMETB Coordinator for Music Generation. The group visited our college to enjoy the spectacular bands they support through Music generation's Pick up and Play programme. St. Oliver's South louth hub for Music Generation with lessons taking place after school for individual, small groups and bands. The board was impressed to see a broad range of musical genres and musical instruments being developed at the college. St Oliver's delighted to have forged such a strong relationship with music generation locally and nationally. We have plans to further enhance the provision of music generation services to the community over the coming year.
