

Salamanca trip

During the October mid-term break a small group of students spent a week in Salamanca where they combined classes in Spanish with cultural activities and visits. Activities included Salsa dancing, treasure hunts around the historical city and theatrical performances by the students in the streets of Salamanca. They also enjoyed a visit to Madrid and Avila."