

SciFest 2017

Jack McGovern, TY student in St. Oliver's Community College, pictured with his Science teacher, Ms, Deirdre Dunford, won the prestigious SciFest 10th Anniversary Award for his project "Crickets – An Alternative Protein Source". The competition was held in Dundalk Institute of Technology and had representatives from schools across the North East.