

St. Oliver's Students take to the slopes In New Hampshire, USA

The 8th annual St. Oliver's Community College ski trip departed Drogheda on Saturday the 10th of February for 1 week to Cannon Mountain ski resort, in the White Mountains of New Hampshire via Boston in the United States of America. Forty Five students and five teachers made the trip to the USA to ski in excellent snow conditions. All participants had a wonderful trip in near perfect conditions.